

Transcript of CCRESALicensure

How to ensure all teachers are properly licensed?

10:10am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by Sonya

Are there test prep sessions to assist teachers?

10:11am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by Sonya

Are districts able to provide reimbursement for licensure tests? If so, how?

10:12am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by lheartErika

Develop enhanced reciprocity guidelines.

10:12am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by Rowe

New teacher candidates the opportunity to complete in all-inclusive program in the classroom with the guidance of a coach & a master teacher

10:14am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by Rowe

Continuously raising requirements for teacher licensure while producing fewer teachers is a setup for failure by public education

10:16am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by Ralph

The required 2.7 gpa will be moving to a 3.0. This is a national accreditation requirement rather than just the state of NC.

10:18am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by tp

The Pearson tests for elementary and special education teachers do not assess pedagogy.

10:19am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by tp

-Process is VERY slow. Teachers do not feel that they are getting their years of experience, etc.

10:23am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

_Too many unknowns because of the slow process.

10:24am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Licensure should not be linked to years of experience- that should be with salary

10:25am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

More people are needed to increase efficiency in the licensure department

10:26am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

National Board Certified teachers should not have to apply for NC license

10:27am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Could we adopt a National License?

10:27am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Local LEAs need more guidance (flow chart for example) what license implies what you can teach...

10:29am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Reciprocity-??? Does it actually exist anymore?

10:39am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Process for licensure is very "Muddy".

10:41am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Why is it required to have a job in NC to attain a NC license?

10:42am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by amy

Reduce the number of tests for licensure especially if you already took Praxis/Pearson in another state.

10:42am, Fri, Mar 4, 2016 by Pamela